Beneficiary Designation Information

Only the policy owner is authorized to designate and change beneficiaries. The owner may designate any individual(s), legal entity or estate. The owner may change the beneficiary designation at any time prior to the death of the insured and without the consent or knowledge of the beneficiaries. If the prior designation contains an irrevocable beneficiary, that beneficiary must approve the change in writing. In cases of a court order, an amended court order must accompany this form.

Beneficiary changes must be made in on our forms, and are effective on the date signed by the owner, after receipt and written approval by Armed Forces Mutual. Armed Forces Mutual is not responsible for any payment or other action taken before approval. Contact Policy Services if you do not receive written approval within 30 days of mailing this completed and signed form to Armed Forces Mutual.
